Status of the project

Searching for investors

Investment attractiveness of the project:

- Volume of Russian import of automotive batteries is about $ 400 mln. USD
- The industry of automotive batteries in the Eurasian economic Union is still poorly developed
- The market of automotive batteries Russia is growing by 10-15% a year due to localization of assembly of foreign cars and the development of the Russian automotive industry
- Despite continuing growth, the Russian market of automotive batteries is underdeveloped, which determines the demand for products and creates favorable conditions for its exports.
